

SO YOU WANT TO BUILD A HYBRID WORSHIP EXPERIENCE

SESSION ONE PREMIER: APRIL 22, 6 PM EDT
SESSION TWO PREMIER: APRIL 29, 6 PM EDT

Hosted by:

The Indiana-Kentucky Conference is offering a two-session series for its Conference members (via Zoom) and the wider church (via YouTube live streaming) that addresses the work of creating a worship service that is simultaneously online and in-person, without sacrificing the feeling of engagement and belonging for either type of worshipper.

SO YOU WANT TO BUILD A HYBRID WORSHIP EXPERIENCE

Session One: Time and Talent, premieres at 6 pm EDT on April 22 here: <https://youtu.be/9t-PFd2OsPA>.

It will focus on how to plan for a hybrid service.

- First Steps
- Principle Players
- What does it look like?
- How do we market it?
- Tending to multiple audiences

Session Two: Tools and Tech, premieres at 6 pm EDT on April 29 here: <https://youtu.be/czsobF8w6KY>.

It will focus on what you need to go live, such as:

- What kind of tech will I need?
- How to build it on a budget
- What do I do if I am not “tech savvy?”
- How does it all work together?
- What do we do “if?”

Our Guide will be Troy Vaupel. Troy Vaupel is the owner of Vaupel Video, a full-service video production company, specializing in broadcast & social media videos, videography & photography, editing, graphic & motion design, story creation & script writing, live streaming services & consultation.

In his 20+ years in video production, Troy Vaupel has produced thousands of projects for a variety of clients. Troy is a lay leader with Bethlehem UCC in Evansville serving as their Creative Ministry Director. During the pandemic, Troy helped pre-produce the virtual worship service for their congregation each week. He also supervised installation of equipment to live-stream their worship from the Sanctuary.
